The Sebring-West Branch Fastpitch Softball Association fosters good sportsmanship and friendly competition through team participation, establishes a learning environment that cultivates young athletes, and provides instruction in the fundamentals of fast pitch softball. The league is open to any 7-14 year old (as of January 1, 2018) who is not rostered to another team (excluding high school teams) during the season of play.

U8 teams compete in Alliance Softball League and all U10 teams and above participate in the Stark County Girls Softball Association where girls will be competing against local teams such as Alliance, Marlinton, Louisville, and Minerva. The league also includes East Canton, Canton City, Plain, Sandy Valley, Perry, and several other school districts.
