WRITING WORKSHOP	WRITING WORKSHOP Writers write summaries which include a brief statement about the setting, characters, plot, important events, problem resolution, and message so that they can show they understood what happened in the story. Writing about Reading: Students will watch a story online and write a summary about it. Within the writing, the first paragraph will include information about the author and illustrator, the title, and also the genre of the book and how they know. The second paragraph will be the actual summary of what happened in the story. The last paragraph will state their opinion of the story and also state what the author's message is. Benchmarking Students	WRITING WORKSHOP Finish summary from day before if needed. Benchmark Students	WRITING WORKSHOP Finish any work from the week before if needed. Benchmark Students	WRITING WORKSHOP Finish any work from the week before if needed. Benchmark Students
